

Please don't weaken Wisconsin's Do Not Call list rules. If someone cancels their service with a business, there is usually a reason. The last thing you want to do is continue to deal with that company's annoying phone calls. These companies had their chance to communicate with us before we dropped them. If they didn't bother or couldn't do it well before that, that is their problem - not mine. Thank you.